THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION No. 1762 of 1995

O R D E R:

The action of the first respondent in not implementing the proceedings dated 18-01-1995 and the action of the second respondent in not permitting the petitioner to join duty in its college, is impugned in this writ petition.

The petitioner was working in the third respondent-college ever since 1978. On the ground that she was identified as surplus, she was transferred to the second respondent, which, however, did not take the petitioner into duty despite specific orders in this regard by the first respondent. Aggrieved thereby, when the petitioner approached this Court, by order in WPMP.No.2195 of 1995 in W.P.No.1762 of 1995 dated 02-02-1995, it was held that having regard to the fact that the order of the first respondent was not being respected by the second respondent resulting in the petitioner being put to inconvenience and since the said order cannot adversely affect the interest of the petitioner, who has been working in the third respondent-college as lecturer right from 1978, this Court directed the third respondent-college to retain the petitioner without regard to the directions issued by the first respondent and continue to receive grant-in-aid and pay salaries to the petitioner.

Learned Government Pleader for Higher Education would submit that pursuant to the interim order of this Court, the petitioner is continuing in the third respondent-college and that she is being paid grant-in-aid released by the Government. Since none of the parties have any further grievance and since the petitioner is continuing as lecturer in the third respondent-college, it would suffice if the interim order passed earlier is made the final orders in the writ petition.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.
